God first loved us

John stated clearly what he meant by love, & it is echoed in today's 2nd Reading.

"This is the love I mean: not our love for God, but God's love for us, when he sent his Son to be the sacrifice that takes away our sins." The deep truth about God is not that he loves us or that he is a lovable being, but rather that, in himself, he is love. By his nature God gives & shares of his inner self. It also means that whoever receives the gift of God's love must mirror God's own sharing of self. God's love was such as to impel him to give his only Son so that we might have life through him. God is even closer to us than we are to ourselves. Through the prophet Isaiah God addresses the consoling words, "See upon the palm of my hand I have written your name." Indeed, in the person of Jesus, God, as it were, reaches out to us with two hands the one extended in forgiveness which saves us from being engulfed here & now in our evil ways, the other casting a ray of light beyond the portals of death, reminding us that as God raised Christ from the dead, so he will redeem us too, when we have completed our earthly existence. That we are able to grasp those hands of God extended to us, that we are able to cling to them steadfastly, is more a gift of God's grace than our own accomplishment. No amount of self-pruning, of teeth-gritting human striving, will bring us any closer to God. But if we try & go through life in the conviction that God's loving care is watching over us, we will cease to be anxious about our own happiness, about what we would like to become. Strange as it may seem, faith in God's love for us frees us from all kinds of inner pressures, & yet at the same time brings us to a closer & more completely loving our God. o.acf

Dios nos amó primero

Juan declaró claramente lo que quería decir con amor, y esto se repite en la segunda lectura de hoy. "Este es el amor al que me refiero: no nuestro amor por Dios, sino el amor de Dios por nosotros, cuando envió a su Hijo para ser el sacrificio que quita nuestros pecados". La verdad profunda sobre Dios no es que nos ama o que es un ser amable, sino que, en sí mismo, es amor. Por su naturaleza, Dios da y comparte de su yo interior. También significa que quien recibe el don del amor de Dios debe reflejar la propia participación de Dios en sí mismo. El amor de Dios fue tal que lo impulsó a dar a su único Hijo para que tuviéramos vida a través de él. Dios está aún más cerca de nosotros que nosotros mismos. A través del profeta Isaías, Dios dirige las consoladoras palabras: "Mira, en la palma de mi mano he escrito tu nombre". De hecho, en la persona de Jesús, Dios, por así decirlo, nos extiende las dos manos, una extendida en perdón que nos salva de ser sumergidos aquí y ahora en nuestros malos caminos, la otra proyectando un rayo de luz más allá de los portales de la muerte, recordándonos que, así como Dios resucitó a Cristo del muertos, así también a nosotros nos redimirá, cuando hayamos completado nuestra existencia terrena. Que seamos capaces de agarrar esas manos que Dios nos tiende, que seamos capaces de aferrarnos a ellas con firmeza, es más un don de la gracia de Dios que nuestra propia realización. Ningún esfuerzo humano de apretar los dientes, nos acercará más a Dios. Pero si intentamos vivir la vida con la convicción de que el cuidado amoroso de Dios nos cuida, dejaremos de estar ansiosos por nuestra propia felicidad, por lo que nos gustaría llegar a ser. Por extraño que parezca, la fe en el amor de Dios por nosotros nos libera de todo tipo de presiones internas y, sin embargo, al mismo tiempo nos acerca a un Dios más cercano y más completamente amoroso.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL
FIRST HOLY COMMUNION
STUDENTS FROM THE CCD
PROGRAM 2023/24.

This weekend, 90 children will be blessed to receive their First Holy Communion. Thank you, Father Paul, the catechists, office staff, volunteers, Knight of Columbus, Catholic Daughter, parents & grandparents who helped make this possible during the last two years. They all have worked very hard. All students submitted weekly mass reflections, prayed, looked up bible scripture & more importantly used the Bible for their faith formation. We are all very joyful for their new Sacrament they have received. Praise to our Lord & our Mother Mary for their grace! We invite each one of you, if you see a child wearing their special attire this weekend May 5th, congratulate them

FELICITACIONES A TODOS LOS ESTUDIANTES DE
PRIMERA COMUNIÓN DEL
PROGRAMA DEL CATECISMO
2023/24.

Este fin de semana, 90 niños serán bendecidos por recibir su Primera Comunión. Gracias al Padre Paul, las catequistas, personal de oficina, voluntarios, Caballero de Colon, Hijas Católica, padres y abuelos que ayudaron a hacer esto posible durante los últimos dos años. Todos trabajaron muy duro. Todos los estudiantes presentaron sus reflexiones semanales sobre la misa, oraron, buscaron escrituras bíblicas y, lo más importante, utilizaron la Biblia para su formación en la fe. Todos estamos muy alegres por el nuevo Sacramento que han recibido. ¡Alabado sea nuestro Señor y nuestra Madre María por su gracia! Invitamos a cada uno de ustedes, Si ven a un niño/a usando su vestimenta especial este fin de semana 5 de mayo, felicitenlos.
