JOHN THE BAPTIST

At a school open house a woman could be overheard introducing her husband to some of the other parents. “Oh, Bill, I’d like you to meet Johnny’s father. And over here, this is Marie’s mom; you know, the little girl from our Ellen’s soccer team.”

With satisfied resignation Bill introduced himself not by name: “I’m Ellen’s Dad.”

It’s good to know who you are. Be it someone’s father or mother, son or daughter, husband or wife, it’s important to embrace the full meaning of our various roles.

John the Baptist knows who he is. And who he is not. He is not the Christ. Nor Elijah. Nor like any other prophet God’s people had ever seen.

John the Baptist knows his mission is divine. He’s more than satisfied to be the one to announce the coming of God’s reign. The Christ is near. Make straight your paths. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

MEASURING SUCCESS

Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles that one has overcome while trying to succeed. —Booker T. Washington

UNDERSTANDING SCRIPTURE

Most people are bothered by those passages in Scripture which they can't understand; but . . . I have noticed that the passages in Scripture which trouble me most are those I do understand.

—Mark Twain

ANGELS OF PEACE

Let us not be justices of the peace, but angels of peace.
—St. Thérèse of Lisieux

FEAST OF FAITH

The Shape of the Mass

In the renewal of the liturgy that followed the Second Vatican Council, the full, conscious, and active participation of the assembly was the primary consideration. By participation, the Council Fathers did not mean just joining in the singing and the spoken responses, but active engagement and prayerful understanding of the rites. They envisioned a transparent liturgy, a worship that spoke so directly to the hearts and minds of the faithful that it would require no explanation at all.

The liturgy itself is the best possible catechesis on the liturgy. What does the liturgy teach us? It shows us the ministry of Jesus continuing in the present. He gathers a community. He calls us to prayer and repentance and praise. He teaches us with the very word of God. He does not send us away empty, but sets before us a marvelous banquet, feeding us with his very body and blood. Then he sends us forth to do what he has done—to give ourselves for others, not just in words, but in deeds. The Mass is the pattern of our Christian lives.

Our Lady of Peñafrancia Cyber Prayer Team invites everyone during the month of December to participate in RANDOM ACTS OF PRAYER.

Random Acts of Prayer are short individual prayers for any specific person, situation, need or incident. They are not necessarily prayers for family and loved ones that you regularly pray for. They are not necessarily prayers for peace, or for the poor or suffering or souls of the faithful departed that are a part of your daily prayer. Random Acts of Prayer are for people that you encounter at the store or while driving or when in the waiting room such as a place that you may happen to be. Random Acts of Prayer are for situations where you have your patience tested or you may see someone who needs extra grace from God or something that was not planned.

Random Acts of Prayer are spiritual gifts given with-out the receiver knowing who the giver is. In the month of December, people exchange gifts for many different reasons and to different people; Random Acts of Prayer are gifts that are not purchased, but are given from your heart to God for others or needed situations. For more information you may contact: Gloria Acoba (209)725-8779 Christine Magsalay (209)658-4505

El Equipo de Oración Cibernética de Nuestra Señora de Peñafrancia invita a todos durante el mes de diciembre a participar en los HECHOS ALEATORIOS DE ORACIÓN. Los Actos Aleatorios de Oración son oraciones individuales cortas para cualquier persona, situación, necesidad o incidente específico. No son necesariamente oraciones por la familia y los seres queridos por los que usted ora regularmente. No son necesariamente oraciones por la paz, o por los pobres o por los que sufren o por las almas de los fieles difuntos que forman parte de vuestra oración diaria. Los Actos Aleatorios de Oración son para las personas que se encuentran en la tienda o mientras conducen o cuando están en la sala de espera, como por ejemplo en un lugar en el que pueden estar. Los Hechos Aleatorios de Oración son para situaciones donde usted tiene su paciencia probada o usted puede ver a alguien que necesita gracia extra de Dios o algo que no fue planeado. Los Actos Aleatorios de Oración son dones espirituales dados sin que el receptor sepa quién es el dador. En el mes de diciembre, la gente intercambia regalos por muchas razones diferentes y a diferentes personas; los Actos Aleatorios de Oración son regalos que no se compran, sino que se dan de corazón a Dios para otros o para situaciones necesarias. REPENTING AND REJOICING

The readings this week bear a certain similarity to those of last week—we hear a prophecy from Isaiah that is reiterated by John the Baptist in Mark’s Gospel—but today the focus is different. Last week John told us to repent. Today he is the light leading us to God. Today is also known as “Gaudete (Rejoice) Sunday,” as the reading from First Thessalonians commands us to “Rejoice in the Lord always.” We are to rejoice. Right now. Combined with last Sunday, this seems like a mixed message. “Which is it? Repenting or Rejoicing?” But John is telling us that one leads to the other. As we prepare for the coming of our Savior we must first repent and then rejoice.

A LITTLE GOOD NEWS

Many years ago, Canadian singer Ann Murray had a hit song that spoke of her frustrations as she listened to the radio and read the headlines. She sang that “we sure could use a little good news today.” It strikes me that this is the message that the readings want us to leave with this week. The Gospel Antiphon proclaims, “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because God has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor” (from Isaiah 61:1 and Luke 4: 18). John the Baptist is here to testify to the light, to the Good News.

WILL THE REAL MESSIAH PLEASE STAND UP?

The Jewish people were waiting for their messiah, they were waiting for a hero. They prodded John several times trying to figure out what his role actually was, and to see what he knew. It became a guessing game. He tried to say nothing, but finally answered in a humble fashion, “I am not he.” He baptized with water as a means of leading people to the coming Christ and helping them to prepare. He somehow avoided the trappings of success that would turn his light on himself. Today he remains a road sign for us, pointing out Christ our Light.

We all want someone to rescue us, and most likely to fix the mistakes and errors that we continue to make as individuals and as nations. Much of that is human nature. Would there be as much fascination with superheroes if this were not the case? How many times do you as an adult turn to your folks for advice, or wish you could talk to a deceased parent? Some need help emotionally, others spiritually, others financially. The reality is that it is tough to get your “ducks in a row” and always has been. Today’s encouraging message is for us to always look to the Light for our help. May we always be like John the Baptist and testify how Jesus Christ, the Light of the World, has been our Savior.
