For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them
and lead them to springs of life-giving water.

Revelation 7:17

WE BELONG TO GOD

In the time of Jesus, when multiple flocks of sheep would be gathered, protecting the flock depended heavily on the shepherd's personal recognition of individual sheep, by sight and sound. In today's Gospel, Jesus uses this imagery to speak of how Jesus—with the Father—protects those whom God loves—that is, everyone. Forces that pull us away from God are ultimately no match for the fierce love that God has for us. Our favor with God does not depend on our behaving properly, or gaining theological knowledge, or holding precise beliefs. Our stance with God is primarily about God's insistence that we belong to God, and to no other. Belonging to God, we know that however much we mess up, we are not lost. Belonging to God eventually draws us into a life of care for each other. Belonging to God, we can safely grow into a fuller belonging.

LIGHT TO THE GENTILES

Today's passage from the Acts of the Apostles is one of several turning points in the self-understanding of the early Church. Paul evokes the image of "A light to the Gentiles." Some thought that Gentiles, non-Jews, were somehow marginal in God's eyes. The Gentiles in Paul's audience rejoice, because they now see that they are not "second class" members of God's family, but fully part of God's beloved people. The story continues by noting the resistance from those who enjoy "first class" status in the community, as inclusion of the Gentiles was perceived as a threat to their self-image and privilege.

The book of Acts continues to challenge today's societies, churches, and organizations. Luke's vision of God's family, united as equal heirs to the Kingdom of God, confronts our many barriers of wealth, race, gender, and much more. We are invited to give witness to this vision in our life together as the Church.

WHITE ROBES

Our reading from the Book of Revelation presents the image of God's people before God's throne, wearing robes that are washed white in the blood of the Lamb. A robe, especially when worn in God's presence, is meant to express the real truth about the person. A white robe indicates their purity. The washing in the blood of the Lamb (Jesus) suggests that the people have met much suffering and, in some manner, have participated in the suffering of Jesus.

These passages were written to a people experiencing great tribulations in living their faith. But the author of Revelation does not suggest that anyone should seek out suffering for its own sake. He does not make suffering somehow a necessary entry pass for salvation. Our sufferings come from many sources, and suffering is a profound mystery. The image of washing in blood suggests that God is present within our suffering. God accompanies our suffering, leads us toward refreshment, and will wipe every tear from our eyes.

TODAY'S READINGS

Acts 13:14, 43–52
Psalm 100:1–2, 3, 5
Revelation 7:9, 14b–17
John 10:27–30

Fourth Sunday of Easter

May 8, 2022

*"I have made you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be an instrument of salvation
to the ends of the earth."*

— Acts 13:47b

A FORETASTE OF PARADISE

Throughout Easter Time, the Church rejoices with Jesus, risen from the dead. Our readings on this Fourth Sunday of Easter celebrate our instinct to come together in joy, worshipping in church. While private prayer nourishes our individual relationship with the Lord, community prayer is a foretaste of paradise. The book of Revelation depicts a "great multitude" worshipping God "day and night in his temple." Our churches on Easter Sunday often reflect this happy multitude, filling the pews to bursting. Four Sundays into the festive season, we are encouraged to keep praising God together. In the Acts of the Apostles, Paul and Barnabas demonstrate their instinct to worship with their faith community each Sabbath, dutifully taking their seats in the synagogue. In the Gospel, Jesus calls us his sheep and reminds us why coming together as a flock is so important: uniting in community, we imitate the unity of God.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Fourth Sunday of Easter

*Almighty ever-living God, lead us to a share in the joys of heaven,
so that the humble flock may reach where the brave Shepherd has gone before.
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.*

Reflection question:

How can I listen more closely to the voice of the Good Shepherd?

The Call to Journey Together - Synod 2021-2023

On October 10, 2021, Pope Francis opened a worldwide Synod, offering the theme, "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission". Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on our Church and how we can move forward together to live a more inclusive and united Church, being Christ to one another. Catholic parishes around the world are entering into serious dialogue around the ten themes offered by the Vatican, listening to one another.

Why is MY voice important?

The purpose of the Synod is "to listen, as the entire People of God, to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the Church." Every voice in the Church is a vital part of this process: youth, young adults, adults; men, women; those who are active parishioners, and those who feel separated from the Church. All are a part of the Body of Christ.

How can I participate?

We will hold a series of synod meeting open to all parishioners beginning this coming Friday, May 13, 2022 at 7pm in the large hall, Thursday May 19, 2022 at 7pm in the Church and Finally Thursday May, 26 at 7pm in the Church. All are invited. For more information contact Rene Rubalcava (209) 756-4729

The K of C wish to thank everyone for your support of our recent Fish Fry/Seminarians Program and your generous donations for the Ukraine Solidarity Fund. Also wish to thank Father Paul for all your support. Thanks again to everyone.

God bless.
