MARK 4:39

WHO IS THIS?

Though we re-enter Ordinary Time already knowing that Jesus is the Son of God (see the centurion's words at the end of the Palm Sunday Passion reading from Mark's Gospel), the long succession of Sundays confronts us again with the question that each Christian community, each individual Christian faces continually throughout life: "Who is this?" (Mark 4:41), and prompts an "examination of conscience" regarding the practical consequences of our response. This year's Gospel readings from Mark suggest that we find our answer in the cross and in the Eucharist. Today's stark challenge of Jesus' call to discipleship is, thankfully, balanced by the comfort we can take in relating—perhaps only too well—to the disciples' fears. Though we welcome Jesus in Word and Eucharist Sunday after Sunday, don't we all, from time to time during our lives' "ordinary time," experience Jesus' "real absence"?

SEA AND WIND

As always in Ordinary Time, today's Old Testament sets the stage for the Gospel. God, who in Jesus will "rebuke the wind" and "command the sea to be still" (Mark 4:39), "addresses Job out of the storm" (Job 38:1), speaking to the turmoil in Job's heart, calling to mind the primal chaos of creation's untamed sea, reminding Job that God's mighty word then was enough to command order and bring forth life. In today's Gospel, the disciples' fear, even near despair, takes center stage. Are any of us strangers to such emotions? Squall-force winds buffet their boat, waves break over it, and Jesus might as well not be there. Mark's account is especially grim. Alone among the evangelists, he tells us that Jesus is in the stern, the very back of the boat, not just asleep—sound asleep! Only Mark adds the detail, "on a cushion" (4:38).

AWAKEN CHRIST

Though we welcome Jesus in Word and Eucharist Sunday after Sunday, haven't we all, from time to time, experienced Jesus' "real absence"? This personal application should comfort us, as it has generations of disciples before us. Though the "boat" is, primarily, a symbol of the Church, never forsaken by Christ, carried safely across time's stormy waters, Saint Augustine preaching on this very Gospel sixteen hundred years ago noted that, since each of us is a temple of God, each one's heart is a sailing boat. Consider any temptation, says Augustine, as "the wind, the surging of the sea," and do what the disciples did: wake up Christ, "the sleeper in your heart," by recalling his words and commands. Then be like the wind and the sea: "The sea obeys him, the wind is still." Whenever emotions make our hearts turbulent, whenever Christ seems absent or at least asleep, "let us not despair but awaken Christ, so that we may sail in quiet waters, and reach at last our heavenly homeland."

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 20, 2021

Whoever is in Christ is a new creation.
— 2 Corinthians 5:17

THE WIND AND THE SEA

Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the “big lake,” as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, “Respect the lake; don’t take it for granted.” People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.

The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today’s Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.

But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

FEAST OF FAITH

The Collection: A Privilege

As the altar is prepared for the celebration of the Eucharist, the collection is taken up. In the early church, this part of the Mass must have been something to behold, as the people suddenly began to move, bringing forward to the deacons and priests freshly-baked bread and fine wine. Then, after the Eucharistic Prayer, that same community came forward again in the Communion procession, and they received back the very gifts they had given, now transformed into something infinitely more precious than bread and wine: the very Body and Blood of Christ.

Beginning around the eleventh century, it became the custom for people to present money instead of bread and wine, and the procession of the faithful gradually disappeared (it survives in the liturgy of Holy Thursday). But the meaning is the same. We continue to bring the fruit of our labors and to offer them freely to God. And God continues to transform them into Christ. It is through our generous sharing of time, talent, and treasure that our parishes can preach the gospel, reach out to the sick and the imprisoned, and celebrate the sacraments.

CHARITIES

"As I have loved you, so you also should love one another" – John 13:34. At Catholic Charities, we are committed to never sending any person away empty handed, without food to nourish their bodies or a smile to comfort them in their most vulnerable times of need. Last year in Merced County, we served over 45,000 clients throughout the Dioceses – an 87% increase over the year prior! Of those walking through our doors, 38% had never been to Catholic Charities before to seek out services or ask for help. With the summer months upon us, the Catholic Charities buildings are abuzz with loving moms and restless children, elderly and heat exhausted clients who have walked from several blocks away, and so many more facing their own life circumstances. Our Rural Outreach events are packed with hundreds of farm workers and their families waiting in their cars in line for hours – all in need of someone to trust and a box of food just to get them through the next week. As these needs continue to rise, we are in great need of volunteers willing to help us serve those in need. Students on summer break, retirees who have extra time to spare, service groups, and all who have a heart for serving those less fortunate – we need you. If you'd like to help, please contact us at (209) 383-2494 or email info@ccdof.org. May peace and blessings be with you always.

"Así como yo os he amado, así también os amaron los unos a los otros" – Juan 13:34. En Caridades Católicas, estamos comprometidos a nunca enviar a ninguna persona a casa con las manos vacías, sin comida para nutrir sus cuerpos o una sonrisa para consolarlos en sus momentos más vulnerables de necesidad. El año pasado en el condado de Kern, atendimos a más de 80,000 clientes, un aumento del 44% con respecto al año anterior. De los que entran a través de nuestras puertas, el 26% nunca había estado en Caridades Católicas antes para buscar servicios o pedir ayuda. Con los meses de verano sobre nosotros, las oficinas de Caridades Católicas están llenos de madres amorosas y niños inquietos, ancianos y clientes agotados por el calor que han caminado desde varias cuerdas de distancia, y muchos más enfrentando sus propias circunstancias de vida. Nuestros eventos de alcance rural están llenos de cientos de trabajadores agrícolas y sus familias que esperan en sus automóviles en la fila durante horas, todos en los que necesitan a alguien en quien confiar y una caja de alimentos solo para pasar la próxima semana. A medida que estas necesidades continúan aumentando, tenemos una gran necesidad de voluntarios dispuestos a ayudarnos a servir a los más vulnerables. Los estudiantes en vacaciones de verano, los jubilados que tienen tiempo extra de sobra, los grupos de servicio y todos los que tienen un corazón para servir a los menos afortunados, los necesitamos. Si desea ayudar, comuníquese con nuestra Directora del Sitio, Sara Silvestro al (661) 281-2130 o envíe un correo electrónico a ssilvestro@ccdof.org. Que la paz y las bendiciones estén con ustedes siempre.

RETREAT PRESENTED BY FR. DENNIS McMANUS

Father Dennis McManus is a priest of the Archdiocese of Mobile in Alabama. He currently holds an appointment as Adjunct Professor in the Walsh School of Foreign Service at Georgetown University, where he teaches in the Program for Jewish Civilization. His areas of specialization include Holocaust Studies, the theory and practice of interreligious dialogue, and the history of Christian-Jewish relations. From 2012-2018, he directed the Jan Karski Institute for Holocaust and Genocide Studies at Georgetown, a week-long intensive summer seminar for secondary school, college and museum educators on the Holocaust. In addition, Fr. McManus serves as the delegate for Jewish Affairs for the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the central administrative arm of the Catholic Church in the United States. He has written extensively about Catholic-

Jewish relations and history, offering presentations widely on these topics through programs such as the Bearing Witness Workshop for Catholic school teachers, and the Museum for Jewish Heritage Summer Program in New York City. Fr. McManus holds an M.A. degree in historical ethics from Georgetown University and a doctorate from Drew University in historical theology. He also serves as Associate Professor of Systematic Theology at Mt. St. Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, MD, where he resides.
