EYES FIXED ON THE GOAL

In today's Gospel passage, Jesus sent the seventy-two out to prepare people's hearts and minds for him. The disciples whom he sent were to rely on the hospitality of those whom they served, and above all, to proclaim the kingdom of God. When they returned, joyful that so many had been healed through Christ's power, Jesus told them that true joy is to know our names are written in heaven. In other words, we must keep our eyes fixed on the ultimate goal, to be with God for eternity. In the heavenly Jerusalem, we will find comfort and overflowing nourishment. Our hearts will know joy beyond what we can imagine. Saint Paul tells us today that knowing the grace of Jesus Christ changes everything, giving new perspective, peace, and mercy.

CALLED TO HIGHER THINGS

Think about a typical day for you. From the time you awake until your day ends, you may be busy, focused on work or family with little time to pause except perhaps a few moments for lunch or dinner. Most of us would say this is an accurate description of life as we know it. And if we are honest with ourselves, we see much good that comes from the attention we pay to the people in our lives and the tasks that we accomplish. We may even be mindful of our call to do these things with and through the Lord as we go about our lives. Yet we must remember that we are also called to higher things. We are in the world but not of it. Our ultimate goal is to be with God for eternity, and all our activities, tasks, and interactions must bear this great purpose in mind.

THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS AT HAND

Jesus sent the seventy-two to proclaim the kingdom of God. They were to show people God's love by the way in which they lived. They were to travel simply, with only the provisions that were needed, rely on the good will of the people they served, and care for those who were in need. While some of us are called to live as missionaries, visiting places far from the comfort of home, most of us are called to live faithfully in our daily lives, where we are, with family and friends, co-workers, fellow citizens of our local towns and cities, our country, and the world. Whether we go to far-off lands to serve and share Christ's message of mercy or we serve in simple ways at home and in our local place, we must remember that whenever we reach out to heal, forgive, and show compassion, the kingdom of God is at hand. Christ is with us and will remain with us

GOOD NEWS IS ON THE WAY

This week, in the midst of summer, the scriptures greet us with joy, peace, mercy, and more peace! Sounds a little like Advent, doesn't it? We often associate the prophet Isaiah with that preparatory season, and our first reading rings with such words as exult, comfort, and rejoice. The Israelites had reason to rejoice, for they had returned, come home, to a rebuilt Jerusalem from their exile in Babylon.

In the Gospel, the seventy-two disciples who were sent out have their own "homecoming," returning to Jesus from spreading the Good News of the Kingdom and preparing people for the "advent" of Jesus into their cities and towns on his long road to Jerusalem. Like the exiles in Isaiah, the disciples return rejoicing.

The Good News, the Kingdom of God, is coming, even in summer. As today's psalm reminds us, "Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!" Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK
Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
O God, who in the abasement of your Son have raised up a fallen world, fill your faithful with holy joy, for on those you have rescued from slavery to sin you bestow eternal gladness. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
Reflection question: Do those around me see in me the joy of someone who has been rescued from sin?

Why should you register? A Catholic parish is where we continue the mission of Jesus Christ. This is where we publicly express our faith, joining together with others to give proof of our communion with God and with one another. There are many reasons to register. The most important reason is that you desire a sense of belonging in your church community. You are making a commitment to practice your faith. This commitment should be a high priority in your life. You should be willing to give of your time, talent and treasure to your church community. Other practical reasons include the fact that you must be a practicing Catholic in order to receive the Sacraments of Baptism (or a parent in the case of a child), First Reconciliation, First Holy Communion, Confirmation, or Holy Matrimony. To be a Godparent or a Sponsor for Confirmation also requires that you receive a letter from your parish church stating that you practice your faith. A practicing Catholic is one that attends Mass weekly and on holy days, and is in good standing with the Church. For religious education instruction and Sacramental preparation, the families of those attending must also be registered parishioners. Your decision to become a registered member of St. Anthony/Immaculate Conception Parish family is an important decision involving all the members of your immediate family. If we can do anything to help you, please let us know. Have you moved lately? Changed your phone number? Changed your e-mail address? Help us keep our records up to date and save us some money on our communication expense. Please notify the parish office of any changes. (209)358-5743 or church.office@stanthonyatwater.org

¿Por qué deberías registrarte?

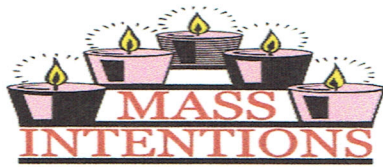

Una parroquia católica es donde continuamos la misión de Jesucristo. Aquí es donde expresamos públicamente nuestra fe, uniéndonos a los demás para dar prueba de nuestra comunión con Dios y entre nosotros. Hay muchas razones para registrarse. La razón más importante es que desea un sentido de pertenencia en la comunidad de tu iglesia. Estás comprometiéndote a practicar tu fe. Este compromiso debe ser un alta prioridad en su vida. Debes estar dispuesto a dar de tu tiempo, talento y tesoro a tu iglesia. comunidad. Otras razones prácticas incluyen el hecho de que debe ser un católico practicante para poder recibir la Sacramentos del Bautismo (o de uno de los padres en el caso de un niño), Primera Reconciliación, Primera Comunión, Confirmación o Saño Matrimonio. Para ser Padrino o Padrino para la Confirmación también requiere que reciba una carta de su parroquia iglesia declarando que usted practica su fe. Un católico practicante es aquel que asiste a misa semanalmente y los días santos. días, y está en buenos términos con la Iglesia. Para la instrucción de educación religiosa y preparación sacramental, las familias de los asistentes también deben estar feligreses registrados. Su decisión de convertirse en un miembro registrado de la familia de la Parroquia del St. Anthony/Immaculate Conception es una decisión importante que involucra todos los miembros de su familia inmediata. Si podemos hacer algo para ayudarlo, háganoslo saber. ¿Te has mudado últimamente? ¿Cambió su número de teléfono? ¿Cambió su dirección de correo electrónico? Ayúdenos a mantener nuestros registros actualizados y a ahorrar algo de dinero en nuestros gastos de comunicación. Por favor notifique a la oficina parroquial de cualquier cambio.
