TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 21, 2022

COVENANT RELATIONSHIP

The term “fair-weather friend” might need a technological-era updating. Perhaps “short attention span friend” would work. In our world of multiple communication platforms, it somehow has become increasingly easy to lose track of friends. We shouldn’t be surprised when we reach out and they’ve moved on due to our indifference. The God who is love and whose covenant is one-hundred percent about relationship is depicted in the same way by Jesus today. Hey God, remember us? There was that one time we were really in trouble and you helped out; well, we’re in trouble again. But we may find that God has moved on since we turned out to be only foul-weather friends. The covenant relationship has two parties: God and us. If that covenant relationship falls apart, and we’re no longer “friended” by God, it’s not because God failed as a friend. Keeping up the friendship and relationship with God is equally our responsibility.

FROM EAST TO WEST

With our modern understanding of the world and its various cultures and religions, it’s hard to grasp how shocking Isaiah’s words today would have been to those who first encountered them. After all, they were the people God called “Chosen.” It was easy for them to presume that after the sufferings of exile that God’s freeing redemption would be for them and them alone. Yet here is Isaiah saying that the saving hand of God will extend to all nations, even those of varying ways and languages. Perhaps most shocking to Isaiah’s initial audience would have been today’s final line: that God would take these outsiders and fugitives, elevating them to the priesthood, to include them in the descendants of one of Jacob’s sons, Levi. It’s not difficult to imagine that this sweeping vision of God’s mercy and love beyond the bounds of the Chosen People was met with resistance, much as similar messages are met with resistance today.

FROM NORTH AND SOUTH

Jesus shows himself to be firmly in Israel’s prophetic tradition, a true son of Isaiah today, as he proclaims a similar message. Those who had been chosen as disciples could not presume that merely keeping physical proximity with Jesus or remaining in his company gave them any real claim to call themselves true disciples. As important as table fellowship is in Luke’s Gospel, even eating and drinking with Jesus does not guarantee an eventual seat at the table of God’s reign. Even being a “pureblood” (a descendant of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob) doesn’t make your final destination a sure thing. How the world has placed you into its categories—first or last—just might get scrambled too. It is those who follow Jesus through the “narrow gate” of discipleship, truly abiding by his example who are sure to find themselves reclining at table in the kingdom.

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Our readings today remind us of the larger story of the Bible, of God's purposes and promises for the world. Because of humanity's rejection of God, as told in Genesis, human communities were first dispersed. Isaiah proclaims that one day God will gather these communities to be healed and reconciled with God. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus echoes Isaiah and teaches that all peoples in God's promised future "will recline at table in the kingdom of God." Notice that in Isaiah, the nations coming to God do not lose their ethnicity or unique identity. They bring their own distinct cultural gifts to God's table. Each people has its unique history with God, has received distinct blessings from God, and each is accountable to God. Today, we live in a global and multi-cultural Church. When God's diverse peoples gather in worship today, may we honor and celebrate each other's gifts and blessings. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Press Release

Patricia Sandoval to Speak at St. Patrick's in Merced Possibility Productions and St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Merced invite you to an afternoon with Patricia Sandoval, on Sunday, September 11, at 3pm. Patricia Sandoval, a California-born daughter of Mexican immigrants, is an internationally renowned pro-life and chastity champion. She inspires countless souls around the world with her miraculous testimony of hope, forgiveness, restoration, and redemption. Patricia came from a broken home. She lived on the streets for three years as a homeless drug addict consumed by the trauma of three abortions and employment at Planned Parenthood. Her story of being transfigured by the mercy of God makes for one of the most powerful conversion testimonies ever heard and written. It's a testimony that has less to do with herself and everything to do with Jesus Christ and the triumph of God's mercy in a sin-sick soul. In Buenos Aires, Patricia delivered a keynote address to more than 150,000 men, women, and children participating in Argentina's 2018 "Great Rally for Life." Clips from Patricia's address at the Walk for Life West Coast are featured on the big screen in The Matter of Life. Patricia is also the co-host of the EWTN español show, Informe ProVida, with over 100 million viewers in all of Latin America, the USA and Spain. Patricia's autobiography, Transfigured: Patricia Sandoval's Escape from Drugs, Homelessness and the Back Doors of Planned Parenthood, co-authored with Christine Watkins, is a #1 Amazon Bestseller available in English, Spanish, and French. Father Donald Calloway, MIC, enthusiastically endorsed and authored the forward to Transfigured: "The life of Patricia Sandoval is about as raw, real, and riveting as a story can get...This story is made for the big screen. It's that incredible...It is a story of God romancing a soul. So prepare yourselves for a wild ride, my friends..." Patricia Sandoval is a voice for the voiceless and a beacon of hope for the hopeless. If you know of someone who believes they cannot be forgiven, invite them to St. Patrick's in Merced on Sunday, September 11, 3pm, to hear Patricia's life-changing story. Be transfigured. Patricia will be sharing her testimony in English. Visit www.possibilityproductions.org for details.
