Hebrews 12:22

TWENTY-SECOND
SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 28, 2022

GROUNDING IN REALITY

If you look up the origins of the word “humility,” you will find that it is related to humus, dirt or earth. Gardeners and farmers know that it is a particularly rich kind of soil, composed by the decay of leaves and other organic material that has fallen on it. Too often we misunderstand it to mean not accepting compliments, relentlessly putting ourselves down, failing to accept our gifts in a positive way. None of this carries with it the meaning of being grounded in reality. Both our limits and our abilities, our grace and even our sin fall upon our lives to enrich us. In their different ways, Sirach and Jesus tell us to accept our lives, to be aware of who we are. Rather than presuming we deserve a higher-up place at the table, we ought to wait to be called to our rightful place, to be blessed with the joy of the righteous.

WHAT HUMILITY IS NOT

It's easy to feel surrounded in our world. We have numerous technological means through which we can receive information (much of it put into circulation unfiltered). Ben Sira, author of the first reading, was in a similar situation: Israel was surrounded by much Greek philosophy and culture in addition to that of their Near-Eastern neighbors and their own. Hard to filter all that out and maintain their grounding in the covenant with God. However, Ben Sira manages to do that much-needed filtering for them, warning his students about pride (the sin of Eden). He promotes humility instead. It is an attitude of courtesy and respect to others, and not a mode of self-abasement. Rather, it refers to an awareness of one's role in the world, offering appropriate respect always, deference only when called for, arrogance never. The mercy of God comes from this humility.

HOW TO BE HUMBLE

Ben Sira concludes that the ears listening to wisdom will rejoice. Jesus has such wisdom to offer today on the topic of humility. Those who hold position or riches would normally presume they were assured a good seat at the table. They are told “step back.” Instead, in the spirit of Ben Sira's lesson on humility, they ought to wait to be invited up. Those schooled in the writings of Ben Sira may have nodded in agreement. Jesus then rips up the etiquette book. Do not to invite family and friends to your table, Jesus says, but welcome those who have no status, those who cannot repay you. In this way, Jesus makes the poor and outcast the ones who actually are able to exalt the humble. Luke's world was as polytheistic and multicultural as Ben Sira's, with plenty of outsiders and unclean folks to go around. Welcome these first, Jesus says, quite literally turning the table on his listeners!

— Hebrews 12:22a

HUMILITY

Today's readings praise the virtue of humility and offer concrete ways for us to become more humble. The Book of Sirach suggests a practical reason for acting with humility: humble people are more likeable than the arrogant. Even God "finds favor" with those who humble themselves. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus provides real-world suggestions for growing in humility and teaches us never to assume we are better than others. His words change our outward behavior and expand our hearts and minds to care about people we might have dismissed before. This practical, almost "folksy" wisdom about humility helps us behave better in daily life and makes our lofty goal of eternal life more accessible. Our reading from Hebrews affirms that heaven is indeed approachable. The personal love and sacrifice of Jesus have opened "the city of the living God" to us. Humility prepares us for paradise. My Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

It is with a combination of considerable joy, some nervous anticipation, and thankful praise to our Lord, we begin ordained ministry to the people of God within the Diocese of Fresno. St. Anthony's welcoming and Catholic faith-filled community is and has been an incredibly special part of our life. For twenty-three (23) years, Shirley and I have enjoyed a profound feeling of Christ-centered fellowship and Eucharistic unity from you the people of St. Anthony's. Our children (Rene Jr, Marco, David & Rosemary) attended catechism here learning about the Sacraments of Initiation here through this community (Lord willing so will our grandchildren Juan Pablo, Teodoro and Kateri-Thank you Cristina).

We rely on the protective mantle of Our Blessed Mother, the love and grace of God Almighty, and trust in His plan and direction He has for us His servants. We earnestly appeal for your continued prayers, abundant good will, cordial patience, and genuine charity as this Diaconal journey begins. May God continue to bless each and every one of you!

Sincerely yours in Christ, Shirley and Rene Rubalcava

Mis Hermanas y Hermanos en Cristo,

Es con una combinación de alegría considerable, cierta anticipación nerviosa y alabanza agradecida a nuestro Señor, comenzamos el ministerio ordenado para el pueblo de Dios dentro de la Diócesis de Fresno. La comunidad amorosa y llena de fe católica de San Antonio's es y ha sido una parte increíblemente especial de nuestras vidas. Durante veintitrés (23) años, Shirley y yo hemos disfrutado de un profundo sentimiento de compañerismo centrado en Cristo y de unidad eucarística de parte de ustedes, la gente de San Antonio;s. Nuestros hijos (Rene Jr., Marco, David y Rosamaría) asistieron al catecismo aquí aprendiendo sobre los Sacramentos de Iniciación aquí a través de esta comunidad (ahorra nuestros nietos Juan Pablo, Teodoro y Kateri harán lo mismo, primeramente, Dios-gracias, Cristina).

Confiamos en el manto protector de Nuestra Santísima Madre, el amor y la gracia de Dios Todopoderoso, y confiamos en Su plan y dirección que tiene para nosotros Sus siervos. Hacemos un llamamiento sincero a sus oraciones continuas, abundante buena voluntad, paciencia cordial y caridad genuina al comienzo de este viaje diaconal. ¡Que Dios continúe bendiciendo a todos y cada uno de ustedes!

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo, Shirley y René Rubalcava

COVID-19 Updates

Exposure And Precautions

If you were exposed to the virus that causes COVID-19 or have been told by a healthcare provider or public health authority that you were exposed, there are steps that you should take, regardless of your vaccination status or if you have had a previous infection.

Steps include:

- Watch for symptoms for 10 days
- Wear a mask around others indoors for 10 days
- Test 5 days after exposure, or sooner if you have symptoms
- If you test positive, follow isolation guidance
- Take extra precautions for 10 days when around people more likely to get very sick

If you have COVID-19, you can spread the virus to others. Regardless of vaccination status, you should isolate from others. You should also isolate if you are sick and suspect that you have COVID-19 but do not yet have test results. If you test positive for COVID-19, stay home for at least 5 days and isolate from others in your home. You are likely most infectious during these first 5 days.

- Wear a high-quality mask if you must be around others at home and in public.
- Do not go places where you are unable to wear a mask.
- Do not travel.
- Stay home and separate from others as much as possible.
