Twenty-Fourth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

GOD OF SECOND CHANCES

If we were reflecting on all of today's scriptures and wanted to come up with one intimate name for God, perhaps it would be "God of Second Chances." Over and over we see examples of God offering just that. In Exodus, the Lord is frustrated by the behavior of the people, and Moses, speaking very boldly, has to talk God into calming down and recalling the covenant with Abraham and Sarah, Isaac and Israel. Psalm 51, "The Miserere," is the great psalm of repentance and cleansing. Take the time to read and pray with the whole psalm at your leisure. Paul confesses his own blasphemy and arrogance, and how Christ is using it now. In the extensive Gospel from Luke we experience Jesus using parables to tell about the widow and the lost coin, the shepherd and the lost sheep, and the lost son and a loving father's welcome.

TAKE ALL THE LOST HOME

In the seventies there was a popular Folk Mass song by Joe Wise, "Take All the Lost Home." It is like our Gospel reading today. For truly, we've all had moments when we have lost our way and needed others to get us back on track. Perhaps this means reconnecting with someone we once knew and making amends, or seeing a therapist to make things right. Maybe it means finally seeking help to stick with the diet and exercise plan, or joining a 12-step program to deal with an addiction. Could it be time to meet with a financial expert to manage credit card debt, or go to confession or meet with a spiritual director to find your way home spiritually? It is hard to ask for help or admit we are lost. We dread the reactions of others, thinking they will be angry, hurt, or defensive. We feel shame. Sometimes people hold grudges for years because neither they nor another will break down and make the first move. We feel fear. This sets us up for the classic story of the prodigal father, where we see two possible outcomes.

WELCOME HOME

The son returns home and, expecting the worst, confesses his sinfulness. His brother has an angry, self-righteous response, but the Father is full of joy and mercy. Such is the case in all the Gospel parables today. We hear God say, "You are the one who is important." There is another poignant song by Brian Flynn entitled "The Prodigal Father" that presents the perspective of the parent waiting and worrying about their lost child, watching the road and praying for the child's return. And if for some reason your own family will not accept you, you will find that there are many intentional families, friends, and parishes waiting with open arms to welcome you. Or perhaps you can offer the same welcome to another returning soul.

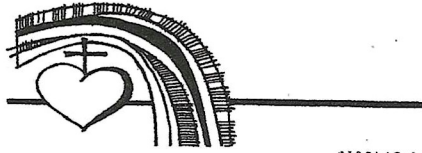

TODAY'S READINGS

Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14
Psalm 51:3-4, 12-13, 17, 19
1 Timothy 1:12-17
Luke 15:1-32 [1-10]

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 11, 2022

A clean heart create for me, O God,
and a steadfast spirit renew within me.
— Psalm 51:12

RELYING ON GOD'S LOVE

Imagine being among those who heard Jesus address the Pharisees and scribes in the encounter we hear in today's Gospel: "What man among you having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it?" Would you leave ninety-nine in the desert in order to find one lost sheep? In the parable, Jesus is showing us the depths of God's love, the illogical, incredible love God has for each of us. Moses counted on this loving mercy as he spoke for the wandering people; Saint Paul acknowledges his reliance on it in his letter to Timothy. God desires to draw you close, seeking you when you are lost. Are you ready to be drawn into God's loving embrace?

Greetings St. Anthony's Parishioners,

May the peace of Christ be with you all. Last week prior to the 9:45 a.m. mass there was a familiar family inside the gates of the church grounds with a sign asking for assistance. I noticed them as Father Sabinus, the altar servers and myself began to process into mass. My thought now was to approach them after mass to see if there was any way I could help (my professional background is in social service). As we exited the church after mass, the family was no longer there.

It was brought to our attention that allegedly one of our parishioners called the local police department to escort them off church grounds. This recalled an old infomercial which started out by showing a homeless person doing the exact same thing and all the church goers rushing into the church for service completely ignoring the person sitting in front of the church asking for help. It went on to show the same church goers exiting the church walking past the person as if they did not exist rushing off to get back to their lives. The narrator states, "If you don't find Jesus out here, you won't find him in there."

This is a candidly clear message that is tough to hear aloud but so very appropriate. As a faith community, followers of Christ and disciples of the good news, what are we doing to serve the greater good? What does scripture (The Word of God) say?

- Matthew 25:34-40 What you do for the least among you, you do for Jesus.
- Luke 4:16-21 Jesus proclaims his mission: to bring good news to the poor and oppressed.
- 1 John 3:17-18 How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's good and sees one in need and refuses to help?

How do these scriptures speak to us as a faith community? How might they apply to the scenario we experienced on Sunday? Historically St. Anthony's parish has offered a vibrant St. Vincent de Paul ministry to serve the greater good in the Atwater/Winton Area. Post Covid-19 shutdown, this ministry has yet to resume operations. Please pray about this, this might be a wake-up call for our parish community to roll-up our sleeves and be Christ's hands and feet. Amen?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK
Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
 Look upon us, O God,
 Creator and ruler of all things,
 and, that we may feel the working of your mercy, grant that we may serve you with all our heart. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:
In what ways do I serve God?
